 [Image Request Form] as of March, 2026

The use of publicity images for this exhibition is permitted only in connection with the specific article(s) or program(s) for which you have applied in this application. Even during the exhibition period, the images may not be reused for any other article(s) or program(s). If you wish to use them for a different article or program, please submit a new application. The permitted period of use extends until the closing date of the exhibition. When publishing the images, please review the following notes carefully, and promptly destroy or delete the data after the exhibition has closed. Please complete the required information and submit your application by email.

<Conditions of Image use>

●Be sure to include the followings: title, dates and venue of the exhibition; name of the artist, title of the object, date of creation, exhibition period (if specified) and following credit line:

Regarding the owner, just mentioning the following is fine: All works in this exhibition are on loan from the Chester Beatty in Dublin, Ireland.

●In principle, images may not be altered or modified in any way, including adding text overlays, cropping, or using only a portion of the image. If you wish to use an image for a magazine cover or similar purpose, please contact the exhibition's publicity office in advance.

●For fact checks, please send a proof or draft manuscript to the PR office at the galley or manuscript stage for review.

●After publication or broadcast, please be sure to send one copy of the published issue or a DVD recording of the broadcast to the exhibition's publicity office.
